

„Nie wystarczy mówić do rzeczy, trzeba mówić do ludzi”
(Stanisław Jerzy Lec)

German conversation course from Level B2

For students of German philology, English philology and Applied Linguistics

A total of 100 hours per school year (3 hours a week)

The course includes: development of discursive competence with a focus on: speaking with the improvement of hearing and reading skills.

The course is conducted by a native speaker.

Topics: current topics, social problems, explosive issues that make the headlines and generate likes, from 20th century humor to small talk, the importance of lying, TTIP, GMO, high culture and climate change up to the meaning of utopia.